Dear Firefighters,

I am Jason. 442 days ago, I suddenly fell in a market in Taichung, and my heart stoppe
Thank you for not giving up and working hard to perform CPR on me and using the mach to save me. Because of your professionalism,
I was able to survive and return to the
USA. You are my lifesavers.
Thank you very much!

Sincerely,
Jason

"Boom!" A noise stopped the busy market in Taichung. A tall man fell heavily to the ground. He did not move. His wife cried out, "Help! Please help him!" The man was Jason from the USA. His heart stopped. This is called "cardiac arrest."

Firefighters came in just a few minutes. They knew they had to act fast to save him. They followed the three important CPR steps:

1. Check: They shouted at Jason, but he did not move.
2. Call: They called for an ambulance.
3. Push: They pushed hard and fast on the chest. It is the part between the arms, not on the left side or the right side. They pushed in the middle of the chest. Push! Push! Push!

The firefighters worked very hard, but they did not stop. They worked for 25 minutes. They also used a machine to help his heart 10 times. Finally, they took him to the hospital. Jason stayed in the hospital for 80 days. It was a long time, but he lived. 442 days later, the firefighters got a letter from the USA. It was from Jason! He wrote to say thank you for the help.

Jason was lucky, but many are not. In the USA, about 320,000 people die from cardiac arrest each year. Sadly, 70% of them happen at home. We must learn CPR to save our family. Their lives are in our hands. 📖 heart 心臟 cardiac arrest 心臟驟停 firefighter 消防員 ambulance 救護車
